

Voices Together Choruses

Voices Together offers unique programming that combines developmental therapy, music therapy, music training and social skill training in the structure of small choruses. Each group is lead by two board-certified music therapists. The program targets goals such as self-determination, self- advocacy, communication and self-expression as a bridge towards inclusion into our communities. Their website is www.voicestogether.net